

CORONER RETURNS VERDICT OF MURDER IN ZEPPELIN RAID

By HERBERT TEMPLE,
Special Correspondent of the International News Service.

LONDON, June 2.—Murdered by agents of hostile forces, was the coroner's verdict returned today at the inquest into the death of two of the victims of the Zeppelin raid over London on Monday night. Pardonable anger against the German government, rather than the point of absolute frenzy, has been aroused by the raid, and hostile demonstrations against Germany readiness to place today. Properly viewed, by persons of sane German sympathies, the relationship of sympathy was evoked by the fact that women played a prominent part.

Bombing, Bremen and Hamburg have been put at work repairing the damage caused by the thirty bombs hurled upon the city from the raiding Zeppelins.

It is believed that all the Zeppelins which took part in this spectacular raid except one, the Belgium, although they were fired upon from high-angle guns and chased by British aeroplanes.

Seeming confirmation of the report of an air battle comes from the Admiralty statement that Flight Sub-Lieutenant Douglas M. Barnes "fell with his biplane Monday night and was killed."

Barnes was attached to the British aviation camp at Hendon, six miles from the center of London. It is one of the aviation defense stations planned by the German air force.

It is thought Barnes was one of the party of British observers who attacked the Zeppelin raiders.

Berlin states the bombs were thrown on the wharves and docks of London. The British government statement does not specify all the sections attacked, but does mention the East End. A number of private houses were damaged.

An infant, a boy, a man and a woman, all complete the list of the known dead, while many were injured. Three large fires were set.

Berlin states the Zeppelin raid on London was the first of the open town of London since the last Zeppelin raid, which has a population of 875,000.

Berlin May Let Austria Battle Italians Alone

By ERNEST SMITH.

MILAN, June 2.—Germany's attitude toward Italy raises as much perplexity here as in Germany itself. During the day preceding the declaration of war against Austria, Germanophile agents freely spoke of German forces numbering 400,000 ready to be thrown from Trentino into Italy.

But the best information given me at the same moment led me to believe that Germany would leave Italy to the fate of the new enemy alone while facilitating the transport of Austrian troops from the eastern frontier and sending German reinforcements to that point in the campaign against Russia.

The Austro-German alliance which I am apt to confirm this morning, Von Mackensen's attempt to have the United States participate in the Italian offensive and thus make possible the transfer of the Austrian forces.

'O'REILLY' TAKES THE U.S. BY STORM

NEW YORK, June 2.—There has been such an enormous demand for copies of "Cape Cod and the Atlantic" that the publisher has printed 100,000 copies in the last three working days.

The first two editions of "Cape Cod and the Atlantic" were distributed in one day, and the balance went out to the most stores Saturday and Sunday. There have been big demands from every part of the country regarding Philadelphia, which seems to have been the center of the storm, according to the Post office. Boston is even more excited. The book is being sold in Chicago and San Francisco, and in the latter city it is being sold by a string of bookstores for large amounts.

Mr. O'Reilly says that in his experience he had not recall a book that had sold so quickly in town. "Cape Cod and the Atlantic" is being sold in the United States by the publisher, who is now in the city of New York, and is writing to the Post office for a copy of the book.

BROADWAY A BORE, SAYS MISS KELLY

By RUTH M. BYERS.
NEW YORK, June 2.—Broadway news are the most stupid phase of amusement, I say as I try to live through with them for all time. It took a great deal to bring me to my senses, but I'm through with all this "wild cat" business. It honestly bores me to tears.

Miss Eugenia Kelly would never word she said as she talked to me in her home on East Sixty-third street. It was her first statement since she was hailed to court by her mother for waywardness. She had just come from an appointment with the dressmaker and her cheeks were flushed with the excitement of the news given she was designing for herself.

It was hard to see in the vivacious, smilingly dressed girl with sparkling eyes, the same person who had appeared before Judge Howell just a week ago on a charge of intoxication.

Miss Kelly's face flushed with sudden embarrassment as her mother mentioned something about a weekly cafe near Times square.

AN AWFUL BORE.
That just by now I stopped," she laughed, and then started again. "The whole matter is a disgrace, she declared emphatically. "All of Broadway is an awful stupid I wonder how I ever thought it funny. The same old same old, the same old music and the same dances, until one gets nauseated—nauseated to death."
"Any girl who wants to get real fun out of the cafe and the cabarets wants to do it in a week and then quit."

"After that she walks through the

EUGENIA KELLY'S ADVICE TO GIRLS

Have fun, but not at the expense of your good name. Make a confidante of your mother. Don't trust new acquaintances met in public places. Make them prove themselves before you accept their courtesies.
Be conspicuous in public.
Dance little in any public place, and only with men you know well.
The more you dance in cafes the sooner people will talk about you.
Don't drink with any man unless your mother is with you. If your mother is along you probably won't want to anyway.
Never see your friends on the street. If your mother does not approve of your friends there is some good reason for her objections. She is liable to know better than you do about such matters.

some old story time after time I really do think, however, that some of the stories started by mother's investigation are exaggerated. Personally I never came to contact with new acquaintances away from me. The whole trouble with the cafe is that it does all the time. I am sure enough to say that I am talking about it. I know what I am talking about. I know that a girl barely knows enough to write her own name straight.

PLAYING WITH FIRE.
The girl's voice was soft and sympathetic, "I wish you would be a little more careful. I know that I am talking about it. I know that a girl barely knows enough to write her own name straight."

GALE FANS BIG HAVERHILL FIRE

HAVERHILL, June 2.—A powerful gale blowing from the north at the time of the Haverhill fire, which broke out at 10:30 p. m. last night, had the effect of spreading the flames and making it impossible to contain them. The fire started in the summer house, which is a small building on the corner of the street, and spread rapidly to the main building. The fire was extinguished at 1:30 a. m. and the damage was estimated at $100,000.

CLY CRYSTAL'S ADVICE.
The hundred-ton ship, the Clayton, which was wrecked on the rocks off the coast of Haverhill, was found to be a very old ship, and the crew was found to be very inexperienced.

NEEDS TO WORK.
The conversation turned to the fact that the girl was not working. She said that she was not working because she was not interested in the work.

32. CHINA EXHIBIT HOTEL, WHERE THE AMERICAN TOURISTS WILL MEET THEIR HEADQUARTERS WHILE AT DENVER, COLO.

Contest Ends in 31 Days Time for Action is NOW

With the publication of today's coupon in the American California Tours Contest, over one-half of Series "12" will have expired.

This leaves only seven more coupons in Series "E," fifteen coupons in Series "F" and nine coupons in Series "G," a total of thirty-one days more before the final end of the competition. Much or little can be accomplished by the various candidates in the last thirty-one days. The tail-enders of today can be up among the leading twenty-five within that time. And it is also quite possible for the leaders of today to be among the tail-enders then.

It's a time for action—vote-gathering action. TODAY—NOW—is the only thing we are sure of and the only way any candidate, either full-on or top-notch, can make sure of his or her position when the last vote is polled, is to utilize to the utmost TODAY'S opportunities.

Are you working at full speed—or do you merely try you are? Do you think it is an impossible task to extend your vote-gathering activities by enlisting at least twenty-five more tried and true friends to your army of helpers? Try it! You never know what you can do until you try.

It's safe to assume that many of the candidates who think they have taken advantage of every opportunity in the matter of vote-gathering are the ones who could DOUBLE their results if they but put forth double the effort.

Surely there is ample incentive for working hard to secure a place among the winning twenty-five in this remarkable contest. The tours to the Pacific Coast and back will be "DE LUXE" in every sense of the word. The American will leave nothing undone to provide every luxury and enjoyment for its fortunate guests.

Another page of candidates' photographs, together with the big, twelve-coupon, will appear in next Sunday's American. The next vote standing will be printed one week from next Sunday, June 18, and will contain a record of all votes polled up to and including Series "C."

Lay-to for a spell and swing on this:

You'll start an old-pal-party via a pipe or a malin's cigarette quick as a flash, as soon as you realize it's a live bet to let your good money rub up against some Prince Albert tobacco. Why, it's like beating back to the bushes for old-home week, P. A.'s so friendly, so chummy-like.

You see, Prince Albert can't bite your tongue, or any other man's, nor parch the out. Because it's made by a patented process that cuts out the bite and parch and let you hear the song of the joyous jimmy pipe and the makin's cigarette all the day long!

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

just hands a cigarette, and you're in the zone. Were you ever happy? Did you ever hit a line? That's what Prince Albert is for. It's the only cigarette that's so friendly, so chummy-like, that sort of good old smoke, that's so friendly, so chummy-like, that sort of good old smoke, that's so friendly, so chummy-like.

Well, that's P. A. no matter how you look at it. It's just plain joy into your system! You don't feel hot off the bat, because it's so cool, so comfortable! And hundred out to you for personal and immediate attention as being about as real and true as you've ever had since Hester was a pup!

P. A. is a real, reliable, red bug for the price of a pipe. It's a real, reliable, red bug for the price of a pipe. It's a real, reliable, red bug for the price of a pipe. It's a real, reliable, red bug for the price of a pipe.

Puzzle

Find the car that is Klaxonised. This is a busy street as seen from an aeroplane. Policemen are walking here and there among the automobile traffic. One of the cars has a Klaxon on it. The owner has sounded it. Which one?

We will gladly put a Klaxon on your car. If, after you have tried it, you are willing to drive without it, we will take it off and charge you nothing.

There is a Klaxon for every size and kind of car—from $4 to $100.

Different and Why?

Experts on drinking water will tell you that no two waters have exactly the same ingredients. Therefore, in the brewing of ales, even though the malt and hops are identical with other ales, there is this natural difference in the quality of the water. The water that goes into ALLEY'S ALE is particularly agreeable and is noted for its brewing adaptability. You will note the difference when you order
